Programme Notes

Our Concert tonight is a glorious celebration of musicals. We start with a medley of ten of Andrew Lloyd-Webber's most famous songs, wonderfully arranged for the SATB choir. We then enjoy some of his most fabulous solo pieces, including Love Never Dies, Music of the Night, As if We Never Said Goodbye and the beautiful duet Amigos para siempre. We conclude the first half with a medley of six songs from Phantom. Our second half is a concert performance of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dream coat, please see the notes below. We hope you enjoy our evening of indulgence!

Rice / Lloyd-Webber "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat"

The Biblical saga of Joseph and his coat of many colors comes to vibrant life in this delightful musical parable. Joseph, his father's favorite son, is a boy blessed with prophetic dreams. When he is sold into slavery by his jealous brothers and taken to Egypt, Joseph endures a series of adventures in which his spirit and humanity are continually challenged. He is purchased by Potiphar where thwarting advances from Potiphar's wife lands him in jail. When news of Joseph's gift to interpret dreams reaches the Pharaoh (wryly and riotously depicted as Elvis), Joseph is well on his way to becoming second in command. Eventually his brothers, having suffered greatly, unknowingly find themselves groveling at the feet of the brother they betrayed but no longer recognize. After testing their integrity, Joseph reveals himself, leading to a heartfelt reconciliation of the sons of Israel. Set to an engaging cornucopia of musical styles, from country-western and calypso to bubble-gum pop and rock 'n' roll, this Old Testament tale emerges both timely and timeless.
